JANUARY 2011

THANK YOU!

We would like to thank all the sponsors for our Horse Drawn Carriage Rides. Mayor Hickman, Lelli's Hatchery, First Federal Savings, Croxton and Roe Insurance, Sherry Fulk, and In A Flash Photo for hosting the event. Also Thanks to Lee Ann (The Hair Center), Maria Davis (Mitchell's Menswear), Jeff Elliot (Insurance Marketplace), Melody Willibey (Then & Now Antique Mall), Kim Bordner (A Wild Hare Antique Mall) and all our young volunteers.

You can dine with this regal group as well as other costumed renaissance characters at our fundraiser- Winterfaire. It is a peek of things to come in June.

RENAISSANCE FAIRE SEMINAR

Saturday & Sunday - January 15th & 16th
 Trine University
 Best Hall - Room 229
 10:00am-5pm

This is the second seminar for Angola's Enchanted Lakes Renaissance Faire & Marketplace. Squire Paul of the Rogue Blades (a renaissance entertainment troupe) will be leading this educational seminar Saturday & Sunday.

As a continuation of last seminar, we will be practicing and discussing character development, confidence building, proper voice accents and mannerisms.

This event is casual and need not be attended the entire time. Those interested in becoming cast members and/or volunteering for the faire are asked to attend. Volunteers are not required to be cast members. There are other volunteer positions available that do not require acting.

If you can spare any time during these days and you are interested, please attend. RSVPs are not necessary, but are greatly appreciated.

Contact Maria or Kim at info@enchantedlakesfaire.com or renfaireinfo@juno.com.

There will be a break each day so that participants may take a lunch break. No lunch will be served at the seminar.

Eat Wings. Raise Funds.
